

THE ARIZONIAN.

Our Spirit Friends.

Do they not guard us here?
Do they not whisper in the evening air?
When we are mingling at the hour of prayer,
Are they not also near?

Do they not watch our rest?
In pleasant dreams are they not ever near,
To give them the bright coloring they wear,
And make our visions blest?

Yes, the departed come—
They gather round us at the twilight hour;
They whisper by a dove-like gentle power,
Oh! seek a better home!

They leave us not alone,
When the cold, heartless world flies from our side
And pleasure's cup is dashed in sorrow's tide,
The loved ones are not gone.

Faith whispers they are given
To guard our steps—to lead us where we stray,
To trace for us their own unclouded way,
To endless bliss in heaven.

Ode to Lamb.

Hind quarters of the type of innocence,
Whether with peas and mint I must dispense,
Or go the twin—blaspheming the expense—
And thus enjoy thee in the fullest sense—
That is the question.

Rear section of young mutton—tender food—
Just in the dawn of grass-fed juicyhood—
Dainties like thee should not be served up nude,
But graced with all the trimmings understood,
To help digestion.

Then boil the peas—the fragrant mint prepare—
Be thou, prime joint! not overdone—nor rare—
Concoct the gravy with exceeding care—
When all is ready, serve—I shall be there
I always am!

Incipient sheep's meat—when on thee I dine,
Hot be the plate, and icy cold the wine—
Three slices mid-way of the leg be mine—
Then put the rest away—for very fine
Is cold roast lamb!

GAMBLING IN UTAH.—A correspondent of the Louisville Courier, in writing from Camp Floyd, in Utah, says: "A few days since I witnessed a long and spirited game of faro. Mr. Charles Miller was dealing, and had issued his white chips at $100, his red at $1,000, and his markers of $25 at $10,000. No limits. The betters were Jack Wolfe, David Wills, John Bigler, Maj. Henry Russell, and Charles Crocker. Wills was at one time $280,000 behind hand; he played even, and quit $80,000 ahead on the deal. Major Russell won $190,000, while the balance were losers to the amount of from $1000 to $5000. The bank was over $200,000 loser. The same evening a big game of monte was played—Mr. Jack Wolfe and Major Russell dealing, while Mr. Hart was betting. The game won some $30,000. Before he attacked this game, Mr. Hart had broken some five or six other games, winning some $15,000 or $20,000. The gaming is now beginning to fall off, and will continue to grow duller until the soldiers receive their pay, when it will commence with increased vigor."

The funny editor of the Louisville Courier says: "Once for all, we wish to say to our vulgar correspondents that we shall publish no puns upon the Sickles and Key affair. We are sick of the whole concern. And so is Sickles; and so is Mrs. Sickles; and so are the little Sickles; and so is Mrs. Sickles' ma; and so is Mrs. Sickles' pa. The fact is these Sickles have reaped more notoriety than they have any use for. The rumor that Mrs. Sickles is confined for her doings with a false Key is ridiculous."

"Wedlock's a lock, however large and thick,
Which every scoundrel has a Key to pick."

WANTED TO SURPRISE HIM.—In a gay circle in the Faubourg St. Honore, they were complimenting the beautiful Duchesse de — on the approaching and apparent birth of an heir to so illustrious a house as her own. She replied, "It's a nice little surprise that I am preparing for him."

THE BRITISH ARMY ESTIMATES.—The British army estimates for the present year amount to about fifty six millions of dollars—a sum equal to the whole ordinary annual expenses of our government. The navy will cost nearly as much more. Yet these estimates are voted through on the evening they are proposed, without serious opposition. If the people who had to pay had votes, such tremendous taxes would not be sanctioned with such readiness; but the men who rule, and the men who work under British government, belong to different classes.

CORN.—The best five acres of corn presented to the Indiana State Agricultural Society for premium, produced 875½ bushels of shelled corn, or 171½ bushels to the acre.

A married wretch said that he lately dreamed that he had an angel sleeping by his side, and upon waking up, found it was nobody but his wife!

A GOOD OUTFIT.—A writer in the Spirit of the Times gives the following statement of the outfit with which two English lords furnished themselves in New Orleans for a buffalo hunt in Arkansas: Four red flannel shirts, two pair of thick boots, two pair of buckskin trousers, two Scotch caps with visors, (no stockings or drawers,) two rifles, two six barrel Colt's (army regulation) shooters, four bowie knives! and eight hundred and seventy-five dollars worth of brandy, with plenty of ammunition to last four months.

MISCELLANEOUS ADVERTISEMENTS.

Proposals for Supplies.

SEALED PROPOSALS will be received at the office of the A. A. Q. M. at Fort Buchanan, N. M., until 12 o'clock M., the 15th day of June, 1859, for furnishing the post with 500,000 pounds of good sound merchantable corn. Bids will be received for the whole amount or for 140,000 pounds each. Said corn to be delivered (thirty day's notice being given) in such quantities and at such periods as the A. A. Q. M. may require, between the 1st of October, 1859, and the 1st of April, 1860.

Of the above amount 140,000 pounds of ear corn will be received; the remaining portion must be shelled and sacked.

The A. A. Q. M. reserves to himself the right to reject all bids he may deem extravagant.

Two (2) reliable securities for the faithful performance of the contract, will be required.

HARRIS & MARCHAND, ASSAYERS.

No. 105 Sacramento street, SAN FRANCISCO.
No. 73 J street, SACRAMENTO.
No. 27 E street, MARYSVILLE.

H. & M. have established, in addition to their well-known offices in the interior, a Branch Office at No. 105 Sacramento Street, San Francisco, where they will carry on the business of Assaying in a manner to give satisfaction to all who may favor them with their orders.

GOLD, SILVER AND ORES of every description, promptly and faithfully assayed and returns made within six hours.

Having been established for a period of upwards of three years, during which they have transacted all the business entrusted to them in a manner to please their depositors, they feel at liberty to refer to the correctness and liberality which have characterized all their dealings as some guarantee for what they will do in the future.

They would especially dwell upon the fact that they do their own work, and manufacture all utensils used by them, for which they received a premium at the late State Fair. In every department none but the best of talent is employed.

As vouchers for the correctness of their Assays, they refer with permission to the following Bankers, who, for nearly three years, have shipped bars assayed by them, to the Eastern States and Europe;
